| 2. EM Unit is Newstadt and Army Unit in Bochnia DI ACE ORTAINED DATE PREPARED 27 October 1954 S S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) DATE PREPARED 27 October 1954 S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) DATE PREPARED 27 October 1954 S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) DATE PREPARED 27 October 1954 S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) DATE PREPARED 27 October 1954 S S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) S S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) DATE PREPARED 27 October 1954 S S S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) S S S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) S S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) S S S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) S S S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) S S S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) S S S S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) S S S S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) S S S S S S S S S S S S S | | CLASSIFICATION CONTIDENTIAL | |
|--|------|--|------------------------|
| DATE PREPARED 27 October 1954 S 5 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) DATE PREPARED 27 October 1954 50X1-HUM— 50X1- | 1 | The state of the s | 1 IIIIM |
| DATE PREPARED 27 October 1954 S S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) DATE PREPARED 27 October 1954 S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) S S S ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) S S S ENCLOSURES S ENCLOSURES S S S ENCLOSURES S S S S S S S S S ENCLOSURES S S S S S S S S S S S S | | | T-HOM |
| DATE PREPARED 27 October 1954 1. Prior to 7 March 1954, a labor battalion was located in a containment about 800 meters southeast of the vas located in a containment about 800 meters southeast of the Jamerane (9 11/ 7 6) relived station and east of the railroad line to Chranew (9 51/ 7 85). It was subcrimite to a headquarters in Katewice (9 51/ 87) which was commanded by a calced! Katewice (9 51/ 87) which was commanded by a calced! Katewice (9 51/ 87) which was commanded by a calced! Katewice (9 51/ 87) which was commanded by a calced! South- battalions were known to be in Osviceim (9 51/ 74) and Sosnovice (0 51/ 67). The battalion stationed at Coviceim Scheduled to be assigned to a Folish tank unit of the Frieg (F 51/H 89) Soxi- station thathe event of war. 2. Battelion whose total strength slightly exceeded 1,000 men was organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were merely labor companies. The 5th Co provided a gus50X1-HUM plateon and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were cryanized into four plateons each of which had four squads. Due to the assignment of recruits, the strength of the battalion was temporarily raised in October and November, and April of every year. The recruits were organized into two additional training companies from which they were finally reassigned to the five normally existing companies of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the rescripts. Since the fall of 1953, soldiers of the 1928 through 1933 classes who came from all parts of Poland had belonged to the battalion. The name and among the same color. Soldiers on duty and at work wore the four-cornered garrison cap (Rogativka), while soldiers on leave over rough no service caps and red cap bands. Svery soldier had one uniform and, in winter, two fabric overcoats. The men received no steel believe in gas and see kited bags, mess kits, etc. | | | |
| DATE PREPARED 27 October 1954 1. Prior to 7 March 1954, a labor battalion was lecated in a combination at bout 300 meters southeast of the Jawerzao (251/176) railroad station and eart of the railroad line to Chramew (251/175) which was commanded by a calenel to Chramew (251/1757) which was commanded by a calenel this headquarters was entrelled by an agency stationed at Krakow (251/1757). The hattalion stationed at Krakow (251/1757). The hattalion stationed at Cowlectin (251/1757). The hattalion stationed at Cowlectin was scheduled to be assigned to a Folish tank unit of the Frieg (F51/H89) station whose total strength slightly exceeded 1,000 man was organies were merely labor companies. The 5th Co provided a gue50X1-HUM companies were merely labor companies. The 5th Co provided a gue50X1-HUM plateou and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized into four plateous each of which had four squads. Due to the assignment of recruits, the strength of the battalion was temporarily raised in October and November, and April of every year. The recruits were organized into two additional training companies from which they were finally reassigned to the five normally existing companies of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the reservites. Since the fall of 1953, soldiers of the 1928 through 1933 classes who came from all parts of Poland had belonged to the battalion. The Germana among the soldiers were estimated to be about 25 percent. The labor soldiers were khaki Polish Army uniforms without correct wore rough vicen-type service caps and red cap bands. Every soldier had one uniform and, in winter, two fairio overceats. The men received no steel helmets, gas masks, field bags, mess kits, etc. | ٧ | PI ACF OBTAINED | 50X1-HI |
| ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYPE) S ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYPE) First to 7 March 1954, a labor battalion was lecasted in a combination of the real-road line season (a 51/Y 76) railroad station and east of the railroad line to Chranew (a 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a colonal Katewice (a 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a colonal this beadquarters was controlled by an agency stationed at Krakov (a 51/Z 24). Other labor battalions were known to be in Oswiccin (a 51/Y 74). and Soenowice in 51/Y 76). The battalion stationed at Oswiccin scheduled to be assigned to a Folish tank unit of the Frieg (F 51/H 89) Sox1-F station was organised into five companies. The 5th Co provided a gue50X1-HUM plateon and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized into four plateons each of which had four squads. Due to the assignment of recruits, the strength of the battalion was temporarily raised in Cheber and November, and April of every year. The recruits were organized into two additional training companies from which they were organized into two additional training companies from which they were organized into two additional training companies from which they were organized to the five normally existing companies of the hattalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the reservites. Since the fall of 1953, soldiers of the 1928 through 1933 classes who came from all parts of Poland had belonged to the battalion. The Gasmans among the soldiers were eximated to be about 25 percent. The labor soldiers were khaki Polish Army uniforms various capender of the form companies and red cap bands. Every soldier had one uniform and, in winter, two fatrio overcoats. The men received no steel helmets, gas masks, field bags, mess kits, etc. | ONTE | NT 00tohon 1954 | |
| 1. Frier to 7 March 1954, a labor battalion vas lecasted in a commemont about 800 meters southeast of the vas lecasted in a commemont about 800 meters southeast of the Jawarano (2 51/7 67) railroad station and east of the railroad line to Chramew (3 51/7 85). It was subordinate to a headquarters in Katewice (2 51/7 87) which was commanded by a calcust controlled by an agency stationed at Krakow (2 51/2 24). Other labor battalions were known to be in Oswiecim (2 51/7 74) and Sosnowice (0 51/7 67). The battalion stationed at Oswiecim scheduled to be assigned to a Polish tank unit of the Frieg (F 51/H 89) station thathe event of var. 2. Battalion whose total strength slightly exceeded 1,000 men was organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were merely labor companies. The 5th Co provided a gus50X1-HUM plateon and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized into four plateons each of which had four squads. Due to the assignment of recruits, the strength of the battalion was temporarily raised in October and November, and April of every year. The recruits were organized into twe additional training companies from which they were finally reassigned to the five normally existing companies of the reserviste. Since the fall of 1953, soldiers of the 1928 through 1933 classes who came from all parts of Foland had belonged to the battalion The Cawarana manner the Soldiers were estimated to be about 25 percent. The labor soldiers were khaki Folish Army uniforms without work wore the four-cornered garrison cap (Rogatiwka), while soldiers on leave were round visor-type service caps and red cap bands. Every soldier had one uniform and, in winter, two faturi overcosts. The men received no steel helmets, gas masks, field bags, mess kits, etc. | NED | DATE DDEDAPED | |
| 1. Prior to 7 March 1954, a labor bettalion was lecated in a centerment about 800 meters southeast of the was lecated in a centerment about 800 meters southeast of the Jewerzane (51/7 76) realiroad station and east of the railroad line to Chrannow (251/7 57) which was commanded by a celent! Katewice (251/7 57) which was commanded by a celent! Katewice (251/7 57) which was commanded by a celent! Katewice (251/7 57) which was commanded by a celent! Katewice (251/7 57) which was commanded by a celent! Katewice (251/7 57) which was commanded by a celent! Katewice (251/7 57) which was commanded by a celent! Katewice (251/7 57) which was commanded by a celent! Katewice (251/7 57) which was commanded by a celent! Katewice (251/7 57) which was commanded by a celent! Katewice (251/7 57) which was commanded by a celent! Katewice (251/7 57) which was commanded by a celent! Katewice (251/7 57) which was commanded by a celent! Katewice (251/7 57) which was commanded by a celent! Katewice (251/7 57) which was commanded by a celent! Solvent in the commanded by a celent! The companies were merely labor companies and one headquarters were organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were organized line of the companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were organized into five companies of the five normally existing companies were organized into five additional training companies from which they were created into over additional training companies of the lastical organization of the same color. | ES | | |
| 1. Prior to 7 March 1954, a lator battalion was located in a commission and east of the Jawerzano (q 51/7 76) realroad station and east of the railroad line to Grammew (q 51/7 85). It was subordinate to a headquarters in Katewice (Q 51/7 57) which was commanded by a colonel. Katewice (Q 51/7 57) which was commanded by a colonel. Katewice (Q 51/7 57) which was commanded by a colonel. Sometiled by an agency stationed at Krakov (Q 51/2 24). Other labor battalions were known to be in Oswiecim (Q 51/7 74) and Sosmowice (M 51/7 67). The battalion stationed at Oswiecim battalion was seheduled to be assigned to a Polish tank unit of the Frieg (F 51/H 89) station thathe event of war. 2. Battalien whose total strength slightly exceeded 1,000 men was organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were energly labor companies. The 5th Co provided a gus50X1-HUM plateon and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized into four plateons each of which had four squads. Due to the assignment of recruits, the strength of the battalion was temporarily raised in October and November, and April of every year. The recruits were organized into two additional training companies from which they were finally reassigned to the five normally existing companies of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin- course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin- course and the discharge of the reservists. Since the fall of 1953, soldiers of the 1928 through 1933 classes who came from all parts of Poland had belonged to the battalion. The labor soldiers were khaki Folish Army uniforms without course for the four-cornered garrison cap (Rogatiwka), while soldiers on leave wore round visor-type service caps and red cap bands. Every soldier had one uniform and, in winter, two father overcoats. The men received no steel helmets, gas masks, field bags, mess kits, etc. | | FNCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) | |
| 1. Prior to 7 March 1954, a labor battalion vas lecated in a examination and each of the railroad line Jawer zame (9 51/Y 76) railroad station and each of the railroad line to Ghrzanew (Q 51/Y 85). It was subordinate to a headquarters in Katewice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a calenel. Controlled by an agreey stationed at Kraiow (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowice controlled by an agreey stationed at Kraiow (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowice (0 51/Y 67). The battalion stationed at Oswiecim (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowice Seheduled to be assigned to a Polish tank unit of the Frieg (F 51/H 89) station was organised into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these was organised into five companies. The 5th Co provided a gus50X1-HUM companies were merely labor companies. The 5th Co provided a gus50X1-HUM companies were merely habor companies. The 5th Co provided a gus50X1-HUM companies were merely habor companies. The 5th Co provided a gus50X1-HUM companies were made workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized into four plateons each of which had four squads. Due to the assignment of recruits, the strength of the battalion was temporarily raised in October and November, and April of every year. The recruits were organized into two additional training companies from which they were organized into two additional training companies from which they were organized into two additional training companies from which they were organized into two additional training companies from the battalion attaining companies of the reservists. Since the fall of 1953, soldiers of the 1928 through 1933 classes who came from all parts of Poland had belonged to the battalion. The labor soldiers were khaki Polish Army uniforms without vork wore the four-cornered garrison cap (Rogatiwka), while soldiers on leave work round visor-type service caps and red cap bands. Every soldier had one uniform and, in winter, two fabric overcoats. The men received no steel helmets, gas masks, field bags, mess kits, etc. | | | |
| 1. Prior to 7 March 1954, a labor battalion was lecated in a combosment about 800 meters southeast of the Jaworamo (Q 51/Y 76) reliroad station and east of the railroad line to Chramew (Q 51/Y 57) which was subordinate to a headquarters in Katewice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a colonel. (A 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a colonel. (A 51/Y 74) and Sosnowice (A 51/Y 67). The battalion stationed at Krakow (Q 51/Y 24). Other labor battalions were known to be in Oswiecim (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowice (A 51/Y 67). The battalion stationed at Oswiecim seheduled to be assigned to a Polish tank unit of the Frieg (F 51/H 89) station shathe event of war. 2. Bettelien whose total strength slightly exceeded 1,000 men was organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were merely labor companies. The 5th C provided a gus50X1-HUM plateen and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized into four plateons each of which had four squads. Due to the assignment of recruits, the strength of the battalion was temporarily raised in Ottober and November, and April of every year. The recruits were organized into two additional training companies from which they were organized into two additional training companies from which they were organized into two additional training companies from which they were finally reassigned to the five normally existing companies of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin and the pit of the battalion. The Lewmans among the soldiers were estimated to be about 25 percent. The labor soldiers were khaki Folish Army unniorms wurmound the Folial had belonged to the battalion. The Lewmans among the soldiers of the same color. Soldiers on duty and at work wore the four cornered garrison cap (Rogatiwka), while soldiers on leav | | | |
| 1. Prior to 7 March 1954, a labor battalion was lecated in a combosment about 800 meters southeast of the Jaworamo (Q 51/Y 76) reliroad station and east of the railroad line to Chramew (Q 51/Y 57) which was subordinate to a headquarters in Katewice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a colonel. (A 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a colonel. (A 51/Y 74) and Sosnowice (A 51/Y 67). The battalion stationed at Krakow (Q 51/Y 24). Other labor battalions were known to be in Oswiecim (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowice (A 51/Y 67). The battalion stationed at Oswiecim seheduled to be assigned to a Polish tank unit of the Frieg (F 51/H 89) station shathe event of war. 2. Bettelien whose total strength slightly exceeded 1,000 men was organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were merely labor companies. The 5th C provided a gus50X1-HUM plateen and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized into four plateons each of which had four squads. Due to the assignment of recruits, the strength of the battalion was temporarily raised in Ottober and November, and April of every year. The recruits were organized into two additional training companies from which they were organized into two additional training companies from which they were organized into two additional training companies from which they were finally reassigned to the five normally existing companies of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin and the pit of the battalion. The Lewmans among the soldiers were estimated to be about 25 percent. The labor soldiers were khaki Folish Army unniorms wurmound the Folial had belonged to the battalion. The Lewmans among the soldiers of the same color. Soldiers on duty and at work wore the four cornered garrison cap (Rogatiwka), while soldiers on leav | | 5071 | ⊔! IN/I |
| Jawrzamo (Q 51/Y 76) railroad station and east of the railroad line to thrzamow (Q 51/Y 85). It was subordinate to a headquarters in Katewice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a celemel. Katewice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a celemel. This headquarters was this headquarters was this headquarters was controlled by an agency stationed at Krakow (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowice (n 51/Y 67). The battalion stationed at Oswiceim (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowice (n 51/Y 67). The battalion stationed at Oswiceim was scheduled to be assigned to a Folish tank unit of the Frieg (F 51/H 89) station whose total strength slightly exceeded 1,000 men was organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were merely labor companies. The 5th Co provided a gus50X1-HUM plateen and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized into four plateons each of which had four squads. Due to the assignment of recruits, the strength of the battalion was temporarily raised in October and November, and April of every year. The recruits were organized into two additional training companies from which they were organized into two additional training companies from which they were finally reassigned to the five normally existing companies of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion. The labor soldiers were khaki Polish Army uniforms without course to the four-connered garrison cap (Rogatiwka), while soldiers on leave wore round visor-type service caps and red cap bands. Every soldier had one uniform and, in winter, two fabric overcoats. The men received no steel helmets, gas masks, field bags, mess kits, etc. | | | ПОІИ |
| Jawrzamo (Q 51/Y 76) railroad station and east of the railroad line to thrzamow (Q 51/Y 85). It was subordinate to a headquarters in Katewice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a celemel. Katewice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a celemel. This headquarters was this headquarters was this headquarters was controlled by an agency stationed at Krakow (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowice (n 51/Y 67). The battalion stationed at Oswiceim (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowice (n 51/Y 67). The battalion stationed at Oswiceim was scheduled to be assigned to a Folish tank unit of the Frieg (F 51/H 89) station whose total strength slightly exceeded 1,000 men was organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were merely labor companies. The 5th Co provided a gus50X1-HUM plateen and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized into four plateons each of which had four squads. Due to the assignment of recruits, the strength of the battalion was temporarily raised in October and November, and April of every year. The recruits were organized into two additional training companies from which they were organized into two additional training companies from which they were finally reassigned to the five normally existing companies of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion. The labor soldiers were khaki Polish Army uniforms without course to the four-connered garrison cap (Rogatiwka), while soldiers on leave wore round visor-type service caps and red cap bands. Every soldier had one uniform and, in winter, two fabric overcoats. The men received no steel helmets, gas masks, field bags, mess kits, etc. | | | |
| Jawrzamo (Q 51/Y 76) railroad station and east of the railroad line to thrzamow (Q 51/Y 85). It was subordinate to a headquarters in Katewice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a celemel. Katewice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a celemel. This headquarters was this headquarters was this headquarters was controlled by an agency stationed at Krakow (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowice (n 51/Y 67). The battalion stationed at Oswiceim (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowice (n 51/Y 67). The battalion stationed at Oswiceim was scheduled to be assigned to a Folish tank unit of the Frieg (F 51/H 89) station whose total strength slightly exceeded 1,000 men was organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were merely labor companies. The 5th Co provided a gus50X1-HUM plateen and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized into four plateons each of which had four squads. Due to the assignment of recruits, the strength of the battalion was temporarily raised in October and November, and April of every year. The recruits were organized into two additional training companies from which they were organized into two additional training companies from which they were finally reassigned to the five normally existing companies of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' trainin course and the discharge of the battalion. The labor soldiers were khaki Polish Army uniforms without course to the four-connered garrison cap (Rogatiwka), while soldiers on leave wore round visor-type service caps and red cap bands. Every soldier had one uniform and, in winter, two fabric overcoats. The men received no steel helmets, gas masks, field bags, mess kits, etc. | | | |
| scheduled to be assigned to a Folish tank unit of the Frieg (F 51/H 89) station thathe event of war. 2. Battalion whose total strength slightly exceeded 1,000 men was organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were merely labor companies. The 5th Co provided a gus50X1-HUM plateon and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized into four plateons each of which had four squads. Due to the assignment of recruits, the strength of the battalion was temporarily raised in October and November, and April of every year. The recruits were organized into two additional training companies from which they were finally reassigned to the five normally existing companies of the battalion after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the reservists. Since the fall of 1953, soldiers of the 1928 through 1933 classes who came from all parts of Foland had belonged to the battalion. The fermans among the soldiers were estimated to be about 25 percent. The labor soldiers were khaki Folish Army uniforms without corner. The labor soldiers were khaki Folish Army uniforms without corner. The labor soldiers were khaki Folish Army uniforms without corner. SoX1- patches, and epaulets of the same color. Soldiers on duty and at work were the four-cornered garrison cap (Rogatiwka), while soldiers on leave were round visor-type service caps and red cap bands. Every soldier had one uniform and, in winter, two fabric overcoats. The men received no steel helmets, gas masks, field bags, mess kits, etc. | | was lecated in a continuent about 600 meters southeast of the railroad line | |
| whose total strength slightly exceeded 1,000 men was organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were merely labor companies. The 5th Co provided a gus50X1-HUM companies were merely labor companies. The 5th Co provided a gus50X1-HUM plateon and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized into four plateons each of which had four squads. Due to the assignment of recruits, the strength of the battalien was temporarily raised in October and November, and April of every year. The recruits were organized into two additional training companies from which they were finally reassigned to the five normally existing companies of the battalion after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the testalion after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the servists. Since the fall of 1953, soldiers of the 1928 through 1933 classes who came from all parts of Poland had belonged to the battalion. The Germans among the soldiers were estimated to be about 25 percent. The labor soldiers were khaki Polish Army uniforms without course to the four-cornered garrison cap (Rogatiwka), while soldiers on leave were round visor-type service caps and red cap bands. Every soldier had one uniform and, in winter, two fabric overcoats. The men received no steel helmets, gas masks, field bags, mess kits, etc. | | Jawrane (Q 51/Y 76) railroad station and east of the railroad line to Ghrzanew (Q 51/Y 85). It was subordinate to a headquarters in Katewice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a colonel. This headquarters was controlled by an agency stationed at Krakow (Q 51/Z 24). Other labor battalians were known to be in Oswiecim (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowiec | 5 0 |
| companies were merely labor companies. The 5th Co provided a gus50X1-HUM plateen and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized into four plateens each of which had four squads. Due to the assignment of recruits, the strength of the battalien was temporarily raised in October and November, and April of every year. The recruits were organized into two additional training companies from which they were organized into two additional training companies of the finally reassigned to the five normally existing companies of the battalien after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the reservists. Since the fall of 1953, soldiers of the 1928 through 1933 classes who came from all parts of Poland had belonged to the battalien. The Campans among the soldiers were estimated to be about 25 percent. The labor soldiers were khaki Polish Army uniforms without correct the four-cornered garrison cap (Rogatiwka), while soldiers on leave were round visor-type service caps and red cap bands. Every soldier had one uniform and, in winter, two fabric overcoats. The men received no steel helmets, gas masks, field bags, mess kits, etc. | | Jawrano (Q 51/Y 76) railroad station and east of the railroad line to Chrzanow (Q 51/Y 85). It was subordinate to a headquarters in Katowice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a colonel. This headquarters was controlled by an agency stationed at Krakow (Q 51/Z 24). Other labor battalions were known to be in Oswiecim (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowiec (Q 51/Y 67). The battalion stationed at Oswiecim | 50 |
| October and November, and April of every year. The rective water organized into two additional training companies from which they were finally reassigned to the five normally existing companies of the battalion after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the battalion classes who came from all parts of Poland had belonged to the battalion. The Commans among the soldiers were estimated to be about 25 percent. The labor soldiers wore khaki Polish Army uniforms without contained to the battalion. The labor soldiers wore khaki Polish Army uniforms without contained to the same color. Soldiers on duty and at work wore the four-cornered garrison cap (Rogatiwka), while soldiers on leave were round visor-type service caps and red cap bands. Every soldier had one uniform and, in winter, two fabric overcoats. The men received no steel helmets, gas masks, field bags, mess kits, etc. | | Jawrzamo (Q 51/Y 76) railroad station and east of the railroad line to Ghrzamow (Q 51/Y 85). It was subordinate to a headquarters in Katowice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a colonel. this headquarters was controlled by an agency stationed at Krakow (Q 51/Z 24). Other labor battalions were known to be in Oswiecim (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowiec (Q 51/Y 67). The battalion stationed at Oswiecim battalion seheduled to be assigned to a Folish tank unit of the Frieg (F 51/H 89) | 50X1-H |
| reservists. Since the fall of 1953, soldiers of the 1928 through 1933 classes who came from all parts of Poland had belonged to the battalion. The Commons among the soldiers were estimated to be about 25 percent. The labor soldiers were khaki Polish Army uniforms without contact to the patches, and epaulets of the same color. Soldiers on duty and at work were the four-cornered garrison cap (Rogatiwka), while soldiers on leave were round visor-type service caps and red cap bands. Every soldier had one uniform and, in winter, two fabric overcoats. The men received no steel helmets, gas masks, field bags, mess kits, etc. | 2. | Jawrane (Q 51/Y 76) railroad station and east of the railroad line to Ghranew (Q 51/Y 85). It was subordinate to a headquarters in Katewice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a colonel. Katewice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a colonel. this headquarters was controlled by an agency stationed at Krakow (Q 51/Z 24). Other labor battalions were known to be in Oswiecim (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowiec (O 51/Y 67). The battalion stationed at Oswiecim was seheduled to be assigned to a Polish tank unit of the Frieg (P 51/H 89) station thathe event of war. Battalian whose total strength slightly exceeded 1,000 men was organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were merely labor companies. The 5th Co provided a gus50X1-High plateon and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized plateon and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized | 50X1-H 50X1-H |
| The labor soldiers were khaki Polish Army uniforms without collar 50X1-beatches, and epaulets of the same color. Soldiers on duty and at work were the four-cornered garrison cap (Rogatiwka), while soldiers on leave were round visor-type service caps and red cap bands. Every soldier had one uniform and, in winter, two fabric overcoats. The men received no steel helmets, gas masks, field bags, mess kits, etc. | 2. | Javerano (Q 51/7 76) railroad station and east of the railroad line to Chrzenow (Q 51/7 85). It was subordinate to a headquarters in Katewice (Q 51/7 57) which was commanded by a colonel. | 50X1-H 50X1-H |
| received no steel helmets, gas masks, lield dags, mess kind, | 2. | Jameramo (Q 51/Y 76) railroad station and east of the railroad line to Ghrzanow (Q 51/Y 85). It was subordinate to a headquarters in Katewice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a colonel. Katewice (Q 51/Y 57) which was commanded by a colonel. | 50X1-H 50X1-H UM |
| 50X1- | 2. | Value 200 (Q 51/Y 76) railroad station and east of the railroad line to Ghrzanew (Q 51/Y 85). It was subordinate to a headquarters in this headquarters was this headquarters was this headquarters was controlled by an agency stationed at Krakew (Q 51/Z 24). Other labor battaliens were known to be in Oswiecim (Q 51/Y 74) and Sosnowiec (O 51/Y 67). The battalion stationed at Oswiecim battalion was seheduled to be assigned to a Polish tank unit of the Frieg (F 51/H 89) station thathe event of war. Bettalien whose total strength slightly exceeded 1,000 men was organized into five companies and one headquarters. Four of these companies were merely labor companies. The 5th Co provided a gua50X1-Hi plateon and workers who worked in the pit. The companies were organized into four plateons each of which had four squads. Due to the assignment of recruits, the strength of the battalion was temporarily raised in October and November, and April of every year. The recruits were organized into two additional training companies from which they were finally reassigned to the five normally existing companies of the battalion after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the training after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the battalion after a four weeks' training course and the discharge of the battalion and the soldiers were estimated to be about 25 percent. The labor soldiers were khaki Folish Army uniforms without course the four-course of | 50X1-H 50X1-H UM |

Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2010/10/27 : CIA-RDP80-00810A005400820011-3

50X1-HUM

| ••• | CONFIDENTIA | 1 | | | |
|--|--|--|--|--|--|
| | | | | | |
| | | | - 2 - | | |
| | | | | | |
| | 4 | • | | | |
| Of: | ficers of the battal | ion included | | | |
| Ca | ptain Ma/kø, (phoneti entenant Kornosz " | c spelling) (f | nu) | battalion com | |
| | ptain Newakowsk | 11 | " | deputy command supply officer | |
| Sta | aff Sergeant (office | r candidate) P | iasecki | , supprij office. | |
| | honetic spelling) (fi aff Sergeant (office | | | one of the pol | itical office |
| Ha | rwankowsky (phonetic | r candidate) spelling) (fn | u) | commander of | the 3d Co. |
| | • | | , | | , , , , , , |
| and | e battalion had 40 gd d record practices, a ed for drill and mark | and about 200 | old, discard | ed rifles which | were |
| sul | bmachine guns were us | sed for instru | ction purpos | es. Prior to th | 10 |
| sp: | ring of 1954, no other | er weapons wer | e available : | for instruction | and |
| tra | aining, nor were any ea in case of alarm | weapons or am | munitions st | ared in the hil | leting |
| wh: | ich were used for su | pply. Training | during the | four weeks bas | ucks ic |
| tre | aining course include | ed formal dril: | l and marchin | Ag exercises. | |
| mai | rksmanship training water training. There | with rifles and | d the simp | est basic pract | ices of |
| comba | man argrarus. Ingle | mare no urgut | | | |
| man | p-reading or use of t | the compass. R | exercises as | nd no instructi Par ware naver | hapu |
| ma] | p-reading or use of t sentially intensified | the compass. Bi | Political political in | indestrination | 50X1- |
| ess and lab | sentially intensified d the study of newspa bor companies, the so ditional two hours' | the compass. But and included apers. After the coldiers who wonditary train: | Political political in he recruits' rked eight he | indectrination astruction, dis reassignment tours daily rece | 50X1- was cussions o the |
| ess and lab add pol | sentially intensified the study of newspa bor companies, the so ditional two hours' m litical instruction to ery soldier received | d and included apers. After the bilitary trainstance a week. | Political political in he recruits' rked eight he ing which was | indectrination astruction, dis reassignment tours daily recessiven in the | was cussions o the ived an form of |
| ess and lat add pol | sentially intensified the study of newspa bor companies, the so ditional two hours' m litical instruction to ery soldier received rking in the pit also by a month for under | d and included apers. After the lidiers who wor illitary train: wice a week. a payment of a received wage around worker | Political political in the recruits' rked eight he ing which was a sloty per per which aver and were to and were to and were to | indestrination distruction, dis reassignment tours daily recessiven in the menth. Soldier reged 1,000 to to be paid by the | was cussions o the ived an form of |
| ess and lab add pol Eve wer z/o | sentially intensified the study of newspa- bor companies, the so ditional two hours' m litical instruction to ery soldier received rking in the pit also by a month for under magement. About 40 pe | d and included apers. After the lidiers who wor illitary train: wice a week. a payment of a received wage arground workers arcent of these | Political political in he recruits' rked eight he ing which was 8 s/oty per per es which aver and were to be wages were | indestrination distruction, dis reassignment tours daily recessiven in the senth. Soldier reged 1,000 to be paid by the paid out and to the senth to the paid out and the senth to the paid out and the senth to the | was cussions o the ived an form of s 1,200 e pit |
| ess and lab add pol Eve wer z/c man | sentially intensified the study of newspa- bor companies, the so ditional two hours' n litical instruction t ery soldier received rking in the pit also by a month for under magement. About 40 pe | d and included apers. After the lidiers who wor included apers. After the lidiers who wor included a payment of a payment of a payment of the second workers the battalier | Political political in the recruits' rked eight he ing which was a sloty per per which aver to be wages were a. The morale | indestrination distruction, dis | was cussions o the ived an form of s 1,200 e pit he |
| ess and lab add pol | sentially intensified the study of newspatter companies, the solitional two hours' multical instruction the study a month for under the study and the study | d and included apers. After the lidiers who won ilitary trains wice a week. a payment of a received wage ground workers of these the battaliers the members a soldiers. This | Political political in he recruits' rked eight he ing which was 8 s/cty per m es which aver and were to e wages were h. The morale of the labors kind of act | indestrination distruction, distruction, distruction, distruction, distributed in the curs daily recessioned in the curs daily recessioned in the curs. Soldier reged 1,000 to be paid by the paid out and the paid out and the stations were the service was revice was revice was revice was reviced in the service was reviced to the service was reviewed. | was cussions o the ived an form of s 1,200 e pit he was e |
| ess and lat add pol | sentially intensified the study of newspa- bor companies, the so- ditional two hours' national two hours' national distinctional two hours' national ery soldier received raking in the pit also bety a month for under magement. About 40 per lance was retained by d, all the more so as assidered second-rate merally regarded as he | d and included apers. After the lidiers who won ilitary trains wice a week. a payment of a received wage ground workers the battaliers the members a soldiers. This seing done under | Political political in he recruits' rked eight he ing which was 8 s/oty per m es which aver a and were to e wages were h. The morale of the labor s kind of act er duress. Co | indestrination distruction, dis reassignment tours daily recessions in the service was paid by the paid out and the troeps battalions were true service was maradeship amon | was cussions o the ived an form of s 1,200 e pit he was e s g the |
| ess and lab add pol Eve wer z/c man bal con gen sol | sentially intensified the study of newspaper companies, the so ditional two hours' multical instruction the sty soldier received rking in the pit also by a month for under magement. About 40 per lance was retained by all the more so as a sidered second-rate merally regarded as a lateral second regarded as lateral second regarded regar | l and included apers. After the pldiers who won illitary trains wice a week. a payment of a received wage ground workers the battalier the members a soldiers. This seeing done under was very go | Political political in the recruits' rked eight he ing which was and were to wages were and the labor is kind of action of the labor so that cood, so that | indestrination astruction, dis reassignment to burs daily recessions. Soldier raged 1,000 to be paid by the paid out and to of the troops battalions were tive service was madeship amon superiors were | was cussions o the ived an form of s 1,200 e pit he was e s g the 50X1- |
| ess and lab add poller were z/c man bal bad con gen sol free | sentially intensified the study of newspa- bor companies, the so- ditional two hours' national two hours' national distinctional two hours' national ery soldier received raking in the pit also bety a month for under magement. About 40 per lance was retained by d, all the more so as assidered second-rate merally regarded as he | d and included apers. After the place a week. a payment of a received wage ground workers the battalier the members of soldiers. This seeing done under was very gotforce their without their without the members of the soldiers. This seeing done under the force their without the members of the soldiers. | Political political in the recruits' rked eight he ing which was and were to wages were and the labor is kind of action, so that ill against till ag | indectrination astruction, dis reassignment to burs daily recessions. Soldier reged 1,000 to be paid by the paid out and to of the troops battalions were superiors were this concord. P | was cussions o the ived an form of s 1,200 e pit he was e s g the 50X1- |
| ess and lab add poller were z/c man bal bad con gen sol free | sentially intensified the study of newspet to companies, the so ditional two hours' nutical instruction the ery soldier received rking in the pit also ty a month for under the magement. About 40 pet lance was retained by it, all the more so as a sidered second-rate merally regarded as a lidiers equently unable to en | d and included apers. After the place a week. a payment of a received wage ground workers the battalier the members of soldiers. This seeing done under was very gotforce their without their without the members of the soldiers. This seeing done under the force their without the members of the soldiers. | Political political in the recruits' rked eight he ing which was and were to wages were and the labor is kind of action, so that ill against till ag | indestrination astruction, dis reassignment to burs daily recessions. Soldier raged 1,000 to be paid by the paid out and to of the troops battalions were investigated among superiors were this concord. Poted | sed. 50X1- was cussions of the ived an form of states of the was estimates of the solution of the states of the states of the states of the solution of the states of the states of the solution of the states of the states of the solution of the states of the states of the solution of the states of the states of the solution of the states of the state |
| ess and lab add pol Eve ver z/c man bad com sol fre | sentially intensified the study of newspet to companies, the so ditional two hours' nutical instruction the ery soldier received rking in the pit also ty a month for under the magement. About 40 pet lance was retained by it, all the more so as a sidered second-rate merally regarded as a lidiers equently unable to en | d and included apers. After the place a week. a payment of a received wage ground workers the battalier the members of soldiers. This seeing done under was very gotforce their without their without the members of the soldiers. This seeing done under the force their without the members of the soldiers. | Political political in the recruits' rked eight he ing which was and were to wages were and the labor is kind of action, so that ill against till ag | indectrination astruction, dis reassignment to burs daily recessions. Soldier reged 1,000 to be paid by the paid out and to of the troops battalions were superiors were this concord. P | sed. 50X1- was cussions of the ived an form of states of the was estimates of the solution of the states of the states of the states of the solution of the states of the states of the solution of the states of the states of the solution of the states of the states of the solution of the states of the states of the solution of the states of the state |
| ess and lab add pol Ever war bal bad com gent for dess | sentially intensified the study of newspa- dor companies, the so ditional two hours' n litical instruction to exp soldier received rking in the pit also ty a month for under magement. About 40 pe lance was retained by d, all the more so as asidered second-rate merally regarded as a lidiers equently unable to en r breaches of disciple sertion emall KBW (Internal S | d and included apers. After the lidiers who won illitary trains wice a week. a payment of a received wage ground workers the battaliers the members of soldiers. This was very go force their wine were frequired was very go force their wine were frequired. | Political political in the recruits' rked eight he ing which was and were to wages were a. The morals of the labor skind of act of the labor of the labor ill against the intly inflishments whose soldies. | indectrination distruction, dis reassignment to purs daily recessive in the senth. Soldier reged 1,000 to be paid by the paid out and the of the troops battalions were tive service was madeship amon superiors were this concord. Posted | was cussions o the ived an form of sl,200 e pit he was sg the 50X1-unishments 50X1-ase of 50X1- |
| ess and lated policy were z/c man ball bad con gen sol fre for | sentially intensified the study of newspander, the sour companies, the solditional two hours' mitical instruction the study soldier received rating in the pit also ty a month for under magement. About 40 pelance was retained by all the more so as insidered second-rate merally regarded as a lidiers sequently unable to entry breaches of disciplinary and the study of the study of the sequently unable to entry breaches of disciplinary and the study of the stud | d and included apers. After the lidiers who won illitary trains wice a week. a payment of a received wage ground workers the battaliers the members of soldiers. This was very go force their wine were frequire were frequired at Jaworzno. | Political political in the recruits' rked eight he recruits' rked eight he recruits which was and were to wages were and were to kind of act of the labor kind of act odd, so that ill against the nently inflication. This unit were to the soldies whose soldies this unit were soldies. | indectrination distruction, dis reassignment to purs daily recessive in the senth. Soldier reged 1,000 to be paid by the paid out and to of the troops battalions were tive service was madeship amon superiors were chis concord. Poted only one construction only one control of the troops battalions were the service was madeship amon superiors were chis concord. Poted only one control only one cont | sed. 50X1- was cussions of the ived an form of states of 50X1- ervice company |
| essandiado polición dessendado polición de polició | sentially intensified the study of newspa bor companies, the so ditional two hours's litical instruction is ery soldier received rking in the pit also oty a month for under magement. About 40 pe lance was retained by d, all the more so as maidered second-rate merally regarded as a lidiers equently unable to en r breaches of disciple section small KBW (Internal S or was also statione see was believed to be dor to September 1953 the Linden (P 51/H 9 | d and included apers. After the blairs who won illitary trains wice a week. a payment of a received wage ground workers the battaliers the members of soldiers. This was very go force their was very go force their done under the were frequency of the serious of the serious the serious was very go force their was very | Political political in the recruits' rked eight he right he right was and were to wages were and were to skind of act and so that ill against thently inflished the large sinstallation southwester and whose soldies. This unit were the large sinstallation so that is a southwester and the large sinstallation so the large sinstallation southwester and | indectrination astruction, dis reassignment to urs daily rece given in the menth. Soldier reged 1,000 to be paid by th paid out and t e of the troeps battalions wer gives service was maradeship amon superiors were chis concord. P orted only one c ers wore blue s which had about prison located on on the west | was cussions o the ived an form of s 1,200 e pit he was s g the 50X1- unishments 50X1- ervice company there. 1 |
| essandiado polición dessendado polición de polició | sentially intensified the study of newspander, the sour companies, the soldier companies in the part of the service of the ser | d and included apers. After the place of the second workers of the second workers of the battaliers the members of soldiers. This seing done under was very go force their winine were frequently unit d at Jaworzno. I connected with artered about | Political political in he recruits' rked eight he ing which was 8 sloty per r es which aver s and were to e wages were n. The morale of the labor s kind of act er duress. Go od, so that ill against te iently inflis whose soldie the large s installation e southwester one KBW (Int | indectrination astruction, dis reassignment to purs daily rece given in the menth. Soldier reaged 1,000 to be paid by th paid out and t of the troeps battalions wer tive service was maradeship amon superiers were this concord. P only one c ers wore blue s which had about prison located on on the west m perimeter of cernal Security | was cussions o the ived an form of s 1,200 e pit he was g the 50X1- unishments 50X1- ervice company there. 1 side) battalion. |
| ess and add pol ever went z/c man bald bad com sol fre for | sentially intensified the study of newspa bor companies, the so ditional two hours's litical instruction is ery soldier received rking in the pit also oty a month for under magement. About 40 pe lance was retained by d, all the more so as maidered second-rate merally regarded as a lidiers equently unable to en r breaches of disciple section small KBW (Internal S or was also statione see was believed to be dor to September 1953 the Linden (P 51/H 9 | d and included apers. After the place of the second workers of the second workers of the battaliers the members of soldiers. This seing done under was very go force their winine were frequently unit d at Jaworzno. I connected with artered about | Political political in he recruits' rked eight he ing which was 8 sloty per r es which aver s and were to e wages were n. The morale of the labor s kind of act er duress. Go od, so that ill against te iently inflis whose soldie the large s installation e southwester one KBW (Int | indectrination astruction, dis reassignment to urs daily rece given in the menth. Soldier reged 1,000 to be paid by th paid out and t e of the troeps battalions wer gives service was maradeship amon superiors were chis concord. P orted only one c ers wore blue s which had about prison located on on the west | was cussions o the ived an form of s 1,200 e pit he was g the 50X1- unishments 50X1- ervice company there. 1 side) battalion. |
| ess and add pol ever went z/c man bald bad com sol fre for | sentially intensified the study of newspa bor companies, the so ditional two hours's litical instruction is ery soldier received rking in the pit also oty a month for under magement. About 40 pe lance was retained by d, all the more so as maidered second-rate merally regarded as a lidiers equently unable to en r breaches of disciple section small KBW (Internal S or was also statione see was believed to be dor to September 1953 the Linden (P 51/H 9 | d and included apers. After the blatters who won illitary trains wice a week. a payment of a received wage ground workers the battaliers the members a soldiers. This seing done under was very go force their wine were frequency in the battalier of the members of the soldiers. This seing done under was very go force their wine were frequency in the barracks of the | Political political in he recruits' rked eight he ing which was 8 sloty per r es which aver s and were to e wages were n. The morale of the labor s kind of act er duress. Go od, so that ill against te iently inflis whose soldie the large s installation e southwester one KBW (Int | indectrination astruction, dis reassignment to purs daily rece given in the menth. Soldier reaged 1,000 to be paid by th paid out and t of the troeps battalions wer tive service was maradeship amon superiers were this concord. P only one c ers wore blue s which had about prison located on on the west m perimeter of cernal Security | was cussions o the ived an form of s 1,200 e pit he was g the 50X1- unishments 50X1- ervice company there. 1 side) battalion. |

Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2010/10/27: CIA-RDP80-00810A005400820011-3